FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Furst Group Promotes Eisenbarth to Vice President

ROCKFORD, Ill., July, 2008 – Pete Eisenbarth has been promoted to vice president at Furst Group, one of the nation’s largest retained executive health care search firms. Eisenbarth joined Furst Group in 2004 as a senior search consultant. He will lead Furst Group’s products and service practice along with managing initiatives with other practice lines including provider and payer search engagements. His clients include leading hospitals and health systems and progressive health services organizations, as well as several of the nation’s largest health plans.

“Pete is an integral part of the Furst Group team,” said President Sherrie Barch. “His leadership in our products and services practice and his experience in executive search will help further strengthen Furst Group’s position in the health care search industry.”

Prior to joining Furst Group, Eisenbarth was a vice president with an executive search firm where he worked with multiple Fortune 500 accounts. He has a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn.

Furst Group deals exclusively in the health care industry, collaborating with hospitals and health systems; managed care organizations; medical group practices; health products and services companies; insurance companies; and hospice and palliative care organizations in the United States and abroad. The firm has offices in Rockford, Ill.; Minneapolis; Washington, D.C.; Phoenix; Dallas and Seattle. Further information about Furst Group can be found at the company’s Website, www.furstgroup.com.
